SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST
Rufus B. McDannel, Pastor
Sabbath School Lesson for April 30 to May 6 -Lesson 6
Subject: Walking with Jesus.
"We cannot for one moment separate ourselves from Christ with Safety. We may have His presence to attend us at every step, but only by observing the conditions which He Himself laid down." Ellen G. White.
Christ is the High Priest who even lives to make intercession for us, and faith in Him gives us a personal interest in that intercession for us. No sentence of condemnation is recorded against those who by faith accepts His salvation. "There is therefore this introductory phrase indicates the close connection between chs. 7 and 8. Chapter 8 is an expansion of Paul's thankful exclamation in ch. 7:25. 'I thank God through Jesus Christ our Lord.' He passes on now from his analysis of painful struggle with sin to explanation of the life of peace and freedom that is offered to those who live in Christ Jesus.' No condemnation. The good news of the gospel is that Christ came to condemn sin not sinners . . . There may yet be deficiencies in the believer's character, but when it is in the heart to obey God, when efforts are put forth to this end, Jesus accepts this dispostion and effort as man's best service, and He makes up for the deficiency with His own divine merit." S.D.A. Bible Commentary, on Rom. 8:1.
Lesson Outline -Part 1 -Freedrom from Condemnation. Rom. 8:1, 2 -"There is therefore now no condemnation to them which are in Christ Jesus, who walk not after the flesh, but after the spirit. For the law of the spirit of life in Christ Jesus hath made me free from the law of sin and death." "It is our privilege to go to Jesus and be cleansed, and to stand before the law without shame or remorse." -Steps to Christ, page 51. Part 2. Righteousness Not Possible In Man's Natural State. Rom. 8:6-8. "For to be carnally minded is death; but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. Because the carnal mind is enemity against God for it is not subject to the law of God, neither indeed can be. So then they that are in the flesh cannot please God." Part. 3. Spirit is Life -Rom. 8:9,10. "But ye are not in the flesh, but in the Spirit, if so be that the Spirit of God dwell in you. Now if any man have not the Spirit of Christ, he is none of His. And if Christ be in you, the body is dead because of sin; but the Spirit is life because of righteousness." Part 4 Son's of God. Rom. 8:14,15 -"For as many as are led by the Spirit of God they are the son's of God, for ye have not received the spirit of bondage again to fear; but ye have received the Spirit of adoption, whereby ye cry, Abba, Father." Part. 5. Children and Heirs. Rom. 8: 18,19. "For I reckon that the sufferings of this present time are not worthy to be compared with the glory which shall be revealed in us. For the earnest expectation of the creature waiteth for the manifestation of the sons of God." Part 6. Assurance of Hope. "For we know that the whole creation groaneth and travaileth in pain together until now, and not only they, but ourselves also, which have the first fruits of the Spirit, even we ourselves groan within ourselves, waiting for the adoption to wit, the redemption of our body. For we are saved by hope: for what a man seeth, why doth he yet hope for? But if we hope for that we see not, then do we with patience wait for it." Rom. 8:22-23 "God gives us hope and helps us to be patient in waiting. But God has another Helper for us -- the Holy Spirit. The Holy Spirit dwelling in us, and knowing our wants better than we pleads in prayers and raises us to a higher and holier desire than we can express with words."

Letter To The Editor

Appomattox Historical Society
Appomattox, Va.

Gentlemen:
I would like any information or any records you can find on Abijah (Clark) who died there in June, 1864.
He was born in Canada and probably was killed in the war there at the time.
I'm not too sure his last name was Clark but his first name shouldn't be hard to find. I only wish I could come there in person to look this up but it's a long way from here.
Thank you
Mrs. Dorothy Sanislo
20656 N. C. 116
Redmond, Washington 98052

(This letter was received by Ken Apschulat, historian at Appomattox Court House National Historical Park. Information about the gentleman can be sent either to him or Mrs. Sanislo, directly.)

Cane Is Relic Of Battle

John M. Dixon's cane (above) is 110 years old this week. Written in the upper section is the information that it was "Cut in the center of Pines Battlefield, Va. where 15,000 soldiers were killed May 2, 1862." This was a battle fought by Lee and McClellan. The guide who brought back the cane is John Taylor, a brother to John Dixon's grandmother, Amanda C. Taylor. John Taylor was later killed in the Battle of Fredericksburg, Va. John Dixon, of Gladstone, explains that his grandmother married M. P. Dixon of Buckingham county. They had one son, John A. Dixon, born March 27, 1861 who married Alice Horsley in Dec. 1888. John is their oldest son. His sister, Pinkie Dixon Taylor, who passed away in February of this year, treasured the cane and gave it to John as a keepsake of the War Between the States. May 2, 1862 also marks the day that Lee took command of the Confederate Army.

SERVES AS PAGE

Julie Belcher, an eighth grade student at William M. Colmer Junior High School, Pascagoula, Mississippi, recently served as a page to Senator Kenneth B.
